Introducing a collection of reflective thoughts from Mel Grams

This book is not meant to be the traditional devotional book. It is just what the title indicates. It is a thought for your day – EVERY DAY.

These 365 thoughts have come out of my daily devotional times. I share them with you along with my prayer that your days will be blessed just as mine have been. Sample a daily thought below:

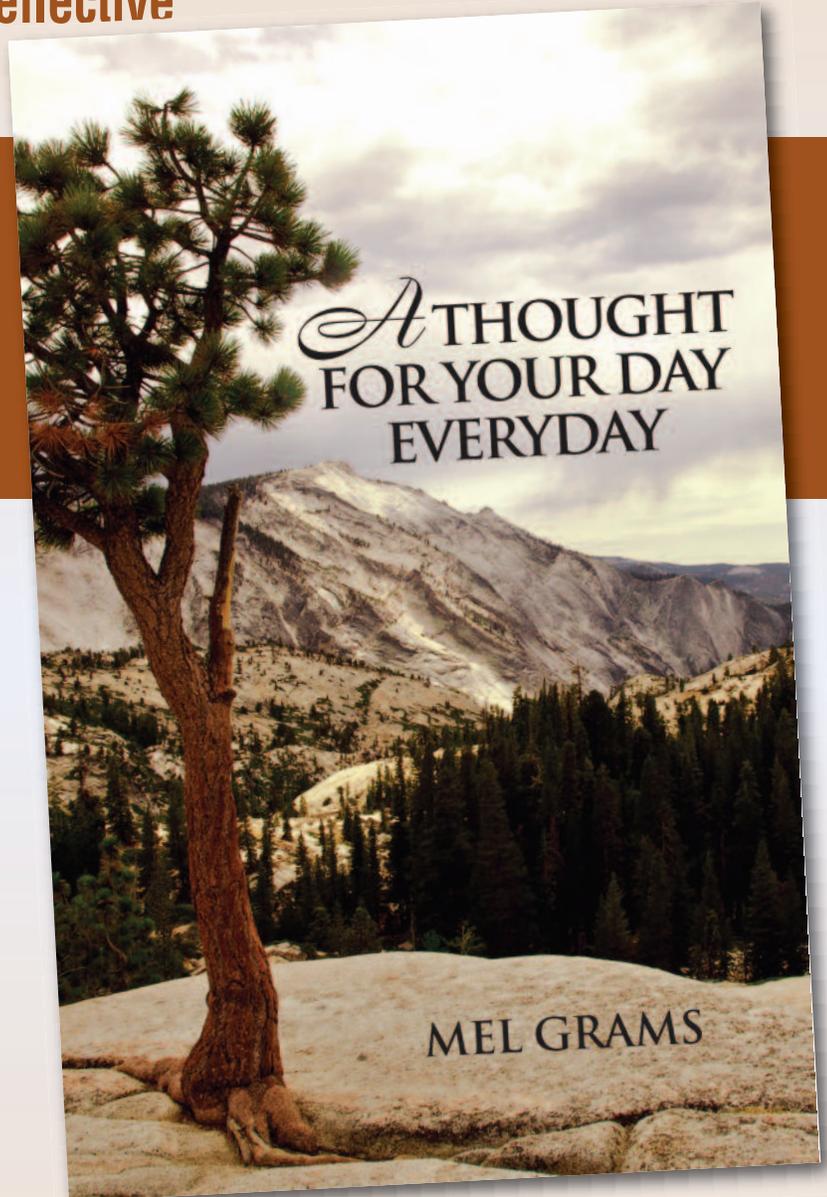

TUESDAY

I wonder if I have complicated the GOSPEL by confusing it with the Old Testament law. In my desire to create a holy people I may have done that. The obedience of the law NEVER saved anyone. According to the gospel of Jesus, salvation can only come by FAITH IN HIS finished work on the cross. There is NO OTHER way to be saved. As the result of my faith in Jesus he has given me the HOLY SPIRIT to live in me. The Holy Spirit then lives the life of Jesus through me and the fruit of the Spirit more than fulfills the demands of the law. That is a blessed relief to me. John 3:16; Philippians 2:13

Are you relaxed in Christ's completed work for you?

Mel Grams was ordained to the ministry in 1951. Along with his wife Verna, they have served in continuous ministry for over fifty-nine years. Mel has served as a pastor both in the United States and Europe. He and his wife served as missionaries in West and South Africa as well as in Europe. Mel served as the academic dean for the International Correspondence Institute, Continental Bible College and the Genesis Discipleship Training Center. Mel also served as the director of training for Eurasia Teen Challenge. The last ten years of Mel's ministry have been devoted to teaching in churches and training schools in Europe, Africa and the U.S.A.
